NOTES:

Ratrix Emm is a Gamma Marketeer who hires freelance Searchers to bring him artifacts and other treasures that he can sell on the Gamma Market. As a rule, he treats his Searchers well and will give them fair prices. In return he expects loyalty and to be treated fair as well. While Ratrix may come across as a jolly and friendly humanoid, he can be downright ruthless and deadly should the situation arise. Those who betray Ratrix's trust usually end up dead. Ratrix has many connections through out Downsfew Stat and even in Wiltson Stat (these connections tend to be his buyers).
