

PELADONIAN/PELS

The Peladonians, also known as Pels, are a race of human-like beings from the planet Peladon. Peladonian life is dominated by a feudal society. There are two distinct classes of Pels – the upper class and the lower class. The upper class has greater privileges and answered directly to the King (or Queen) and his High Priest and Chancellors. The majority of Peladon belong to the lower class. As such, they do all the physical labour (such as mining for trisilicate ore) and they answer to the upper class. Being a feudal culture, there are separate rules for men and women. Peladon is united by the Royal Family of Peladon and the sacred worship of Aggedor.
