Appearance:Height: Average*Build:* Average*Looks:* Average (Draconian)Apparent Age: Mature Adult*Actual Age:* 33

Recognition Handle: Typical Draconian appearance; athletic frame; lately he has taken to wearing a combination of Draconian and Terran fashions.

Distinguishing Physical Characteristics:

Jonen Karvo has a typical Draconian appearance – green scales, pointed ears, and reptilian scaly hide. His intensive physical exercises for the wrestling ring has kept him in shape with a lean muscular body. Naturally he credits his Draconian heritage for his exceptional endurance. He has been blending Draconian and Human fashions in his wardrobe for several years now.

Brief Personal History:Birthplace: Maroth III, Draconian Empire, 3337 CE

Jonen Karvo was born on the planet of Maroth III, deep in the heart of the Draconian Empire. The primary export for this colony world was a native cattle-like species. Jonen's parents worked in the administration sector of the colony; Jonen was expected to do the same but his rough and tumble ways proved that he was destined for more physical activities. He was admitted to the distinguished Draconian Martial Arts Academy where he studied for eight years before he graduated.

Jonen joined a travelling Draconian Wrestling outfit. It was through this organization that Jonen met his first human. He found humans to be a strange and particular species and he had no interesting in dealing with them. Then he got the offer to join the famous Intergalactic Wrestling Confederation (IWC) by the human talent agent, Jeffos Cornick. Jonen's accepted the generous offer to join. He found some success as Karvo the Destroyer where he often played the heel to the sold-out crowd's enthusiasm.

Then one morning it was all gone. Jonen woke up to find himself on a strange world with no idea how he got there. He and eleven other beings have been snatched from their own time and space and deposited here in a place known only as No Man's Land. They are all struggling to find out what happened and to see if they can return home.

Personality:Motivations/Desires/Goals:

Karvo likes humans and often finds them very entertaining, once you get used to their eccentricities. He loves the IWC ring and the adulation of the crowds. He is proud of his Draconian heritage and will often boast about his 'superior' Draconian genetics. He plays this side up as his Karvo the Destroyer role in the IWC.

Manner:

Karvo is generally friendly and open to meeting other people (no matter the species) but should anyone insult anything Draconian (that includes being called a Dragon), he will demand a physical challenge for the 'proper restoration of honour.'

Quote: "By the Emperor's scales!" or "My people have a saying, never hunt Jalgin when one's knife is dull."
