Personality: Dr. Pamela Gamble, Ph.D. is quick witted and has a scathing sarcastic sense of humour that she has unleashed against friend and foe alike. Unlike her name, Pamela doesn't gamble; she doesn't believe in luck. When it comes to luck, she believes one makes makes their own.

Background: Pamela Gamble was born in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada. She has a doctorate in quantum optics physics from the University of Toronto. She is convinced that the supernatural must have laws and rules like in the normal world. She is now interested in pioneering the study of paranormal physics, once she cracks its secrets.

Quote: "Honey, you better set down before you hurt yourself." or "Okay ghosts, no one laughs at the laws of physics on my watch!" [turns on proton pack] or "Honey, if I had a face like yours, I'd be a ghost as well!"
