Relay Switch is of average height and weight. She has short, curly black hair. She has heterochromia iridum – each eye is its own colour (one blue and one green). She sports spacer tattoos (rings on arms & chest and on the face). She often has a layer of dirt and grim on her from her ship duties.

Brief Personal History:

Birthplace: ISF Landau's Hammer, somewhere in deep space in the Perseus arm of the Milky Way galaxy, 2503 CE.

Relay Switch was born on the independent space freighter, Landau's Hammer, while in deep space. Her mother died in childbirth leaving her father to take care of her. Both her father and mother were deep spacers going back generations. That's how Relay got her name. It was a spacer tradition on her mother's side of the family. Her father honoured it as a tribute to his late wife. Relay grew up like those before her; she was a spacer.

A few years later, her father suffered a fatal environmental suit malfunction while on a space walk. Relay was alone. The only home she ever knew was onboard the Landau's Hammer. She felt alone but the crew of the ship, wouldn't hear of it. She was more than just one of the crew, she was considered to be family.

Recently, she has begun to wonder if there is more to life than just fixing the same manifold warp coils again and again. She loves her uncle's ship. It was home to her, but she yearned to experience the universe for herself. The closest she ever got to see the universe were the various space station stops. Some of them were pretty rough, but always exciting. Her favourite places where she could rummage for days for spare parts. Places like the Shipyards of Epsilon Eridani are a highlight with each visit.

Personality:Motivations/Desires/Goals:*

Relay Switch knows warp engines inside out since she has lived next to them for her whole life. She dreams of leaving the spacer life. She wants to spend time on a real planet and not in her usual cramped quarters with recycled, stale air. Her adoptive crew family tell her to be happy with the life she has, but she wants more.

Manner:

Relay Switch speaks her mind, often with a sarcastic jab or two. She can be stubborn once her mind has been made up. She is tough and rough houses like one of the boys. She has a strong sense of right and wrong, and frowns on the common corruption in the spacer guild.

Equipment: Handscanner Tool: Scan power and electrical tech; Wrench (small club, 2D6 damage, -2 DDF)
