Distinguishing Physical Characteristics:

Sebastian Tombs stands 1.9 m (6' 3") tall and weighs 80.7 kg (178 lbs). He maintains his health through regular physical exercise. He has medium brown hair and green eyes. He maintains a well-groomed moustache and goatee beard. He has a bird-like shaped birthmark on his left buttock.

Brief Personal History:

Birthplace: New Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Terra, 2246 CE.

Cadet Cruise, Colonial Operations Command, High Honours, promoted to Lieutenant (Junior Grade).

USS Xerxes, 2 years.

USS Euripides, 4 years, promoted to full Lieutenant.

USS Montréal, 4 years, promoted to Lt. Commander.

USS Montréal, 4 years.

Sebastian "Seb" Tombs graduated his cadet cruise with High Honours. Cadet Tombs was travelling aboard the USS Pegasus when the ship encountered an ion storm that rendered some of her systems offline – including life support. Seb was in the right place at the right time and was able to restore life support to the ship saving the lives of her crew. For this action, he received his High Honours and a promotion.

Seb was born at the Tommy Douglas Megaplex at New Saskatoon on Terra. Both of his parents were members of Star Fleet so it was only natural that Seb would follow in their footsteps. His parents have since retired from Star Fleet and now live on their emu ranch near New Saskatoon.

While serving aboard the USS Euripides, he had an intense but brief love affair with a fellow helm officer, Lieutenant Isabella Glasby. He has known her since his Academy days; they've had an on-and-off again romance ever since. The affair ended on amicable terms as both went their separate ways when Seb was transferred to the USS Montréal. They are still friends who keep in touch when they can.

Personality:

Motivations/Desires/Goals:

Seb loves travelling the stars. If he could, he would want to see it all but he knows he has to make due with his tiny corner of the galaxy. He loves making contact with the multitude of alien environments, cultures, and species that's out there. This is what he has dreamed of since he was a kid. He is dedicated to the ideals of Star Fleet and he lives his life according to those ideals.

Seb does dream of someday commanding a ship of his own, but he knows that dream is in the distant future. He has a lot to learn and experience before he is ready for the chair. Until then, he serves at the best of his ability on the USS Montréal

Manner:

While on duty, Lt. Commander Tombs tries to present a professional manner, but sometimes his enthusiasm for piloting the Montréal peaks through. Some say his enthusiasm is infectious with his fellow crew members (but there are some that would disagree). He is friendly, but with a competitive streak. When he gets nervous, he fiddles with his moustache.
